DEFENDANT THOMAS GEIGER'S MOTION FOR AN EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE A REPOSITIVE PLEADING.

Comes now Defendant pro se Thomas Geiger, in the above referenced matter before the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, to respectfully move the Court for a 30 day extension of time to file a responsive pleading to the current complaint.

Pro Se Defendant requests this extension due to the hardships that have been placed, and will be placed, on Defendant in the last 15 days and extending into the next 30 days resulting from an urgent technology process initiated by the U.S. Department of Defense in which Defendant will play a vital part. (See Exhibit A)

Included in this Motion and request is a statement by Defendant's immediate supervisor attesting to the fact that Defendant has been and will be required to work extended hours and weekends in furtherance of this process. As a pro se Defendant, the lack of sufficient time to devote to an adequate response to the current complaint will unduly prejudice Defendant in this action.

Details of this program and process are sensitive in nature but can be furnished to the court should the need arise.

Defendant should be sufficiently free of time constraints in 30 days to construct a responsive pleading to Plaintiff's current complaint. Given that the issues of the current and past complaints have been ongoing for over two years, Defendant believes Plaintiff will not be unduly harmed by the granting of this extension.

By my hand this 21st day of November 2005

EXHIBIT A

This is to confirm the facts stated by Thomas Geiger concerning his involvement in a critical, current ongoing process initiated by the United States Air Force. Mr. Geiger will be required to work extended hours and weekends and has been doing so. The process should be finished in 30 days, after which Mr. Geiger should be able to return to his regular hours of work.
